Double Dog Ranch is Southern California's only cage free dog-friendly mountain boarding camp. For about the same price as a cage at the kennel your dog can enjoy the perfect canine vacation!

Lucky dogs are chauffeured in the Double Dog Shuttle to our beautiful ranch in the San Bernardino Mountains, where they are happy to find acres of secure, fenced, wooded playground, and get to play with new doggie friends, chase the squirrels and breathe clean mountain air — or they can choose to snooze in a sunny spot beneath the tall trees.

At bedtime, everyone gets a treat and a comfy bunkhouse bed — then it's lights out until morning when all double-good dogs find out that yesterday's fantastic adventures weren't only in their dreams!

Please visit our website or give us a call for reservations, directions and /or shuttle schedules and locations. Ask about extended stay discounts.
